(e) Unsafe Condition

This AD was prompted by multiple commanded in-flight shutdowns (IFSDs) due to inner RDS failure. The FAA is issuing this AD to prevent failure of the inner RDS and subsequent IFSDs. The unsafe condition, if not addressed, could result in failure of one or more engines, loss of thrust control, and loss of the airplane.

(f) Compliance

Comply with this AD within the compliance times specified, unless already done.

(g) Required Actions

(1) Before exceeding 50 flight hours (FHs) after the effective date of this AD, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 50 FHs from the previous inspection, inspect the transfer gearbox (TGB) TGB1 and TGB2 scavenge screens in accordance with the Accomplishment Instructions, paragraph 5.A.(1), of CFM LEAP-1B-72-00-0365-01A-930A-D.

(2) If, during any inspection required by paragraph (g)(1) of this AD, any metallic particles are found, before further flight, perform the actions in the Accomplishment Instructions, paragraphs 5.A.(2) and (3), of CFM LEAP-1B-72-00-0365-01A-930A-D. Where paragraph 5.A.(3)(b) of CFM LEAP-1B-72-00-0365-01A-930A-D specifies to remove the engine, this AD instead requires replacement or rework of the inner RDS in accordance with the Accomplishment Instructions, paragraph 5.A., of CFM SB LEAP-1B-72-00-0258-01A-930A-C Issue 002, dated September 15, 2020 (CFM SB LEAP-1B-72-00-0258-01A-930A-C).

(h) Mandatory Terminating Action

As a mandatory terminating action to the initial and repetitive inspections of the TGB1 and TGB2 scavenge screens required by paragraph (g)(1) of this AD, at the next piece-part exposure after the effective date of this AD, replace or rework the inner RDS in accordance with the Accomplishment Instructions, paragraph 5.A., of CFM SB LEAP-1B-72-00-0258-01A-930A-C.

(i) Installation Prohibition

After the effective date of this AD, do not install an engine with an affected inner RDS onto an airplane that already has one engine with an affected inner RDS installed.

(j) Definitions

For the purpose of this AD, “piece-part exposure” is when the fan frame shroud is separated from the fan hub.

(k) Alternative Methods of Compliance (AMOCs)

(1) The Manager, ECO Branch, FAA, has the authority to approve AMOCs for this AD, if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19. In accordance with 14 CFR 39.19, send your request to your principal inspector or local Flight Standards District Office, as appropriate. No-Action Letter Process

AGENCY: Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), Treasury.

ACTION: Advance notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: FinCEN is issuing this advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPRM) to solicit public comment on questions relating to the implementation of a no-action letter process at FinCEN. Given that the addition of a no-action letter process at FinCEN may affect or overlap with other forms of regulatory guidance and relief that FinCEN already offers, including administrative rulings and exceptive or exemptive relief, this ANPRM, among other things, seeks public input on whether a no-action letter process should be implemented and, if so, how the no-action letter process should interact with those other forms of relief.

DATES: Written comments on this ANPRM must be received on or before August 5, 2022.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

• Federal E-rulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments. Refer to Docket Number FINCEN–2022–0007 and RIN 1506–AB55.

• Mail: Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, Enforcement and Compliance Division, P.O. Box 39, Vienna, VA 22183. Refer to Docket Number FINCEN–2022–0007 and RIN 1506–AB55.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The FinCEN Regulatory Support Section at 1–800–767–2825 or electronically at <https://www.fincen.gov/contact>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Scope of ANPRM

This ANPRM seeks comment on the possibility of FinCEN establishing a no-action letter process. Section 6305(a) of the Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2020 (the AML Act)¹ requires the Director of FinCEN, in consultation with the Attorney General, the Federal functional regulators,² State bank supervisors, State credit union supervisors, and other Federal agencies, as appropriate (the “Consulting Parties”), to conduct an assessment of whether to establish a process for FinCEN to issue no-action letters in response to inquiries concerning whether and how anti-money laundering or countering the financing of terrorism laws and regulations apply to specific conduct (the “Assessment”).³ Section 6305(b) of the AML Act requires the Secretary of the Treasury (the “Secretary”), “in coordination with the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Federal functional regulators” (the “Coordinating Parties”), to submit to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives a report with findings and determinations from the Assessment (the “Report”), as well as to propose rulemakings, if appropriate, to implement the findings and determinations.⁴

¹ The AML Act was enacted as Division F, sections 6001–6511, of the William M. (Mac) Thornberry National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2021, Public Law 116–283 (2021).

² Section 6003(3) of the AML Act provides that the term “Federal functional regulator” (A) “has the meaning given the term in section 509 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (15 U.S.C. 6809)” and (B) “includes any Federal regulator that examines a financial institution for compliance with the Bank Secrecy Act.” Under the relevant provision of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the term “Federal functional regulator” refers to “(A) the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; (B) the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; (C) the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; (D) the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision; (E) the National Credit Union Administration Board; and (F) the Securities and Exchange Commission.” 15 U.S.C. 6809(2).

⁴ Id. section 6305(b).

On June 28, 2021, FinCEN submitted the Report to Congress. The Report concluded that FinCEN should undertake a rulemaking to establish a no-action letter process to supplement the existing forms of regulatory guidance and relief that third parties may request from FinCEN.⁵ Consistent with that conclusion, this ANPRM seeks initial public input on the need for a no-action letter process and potential procedures and rules regarding its implementation.

Because the adoption of a no-action letter process may affect existing forms of regulatory guidance and relief offered by FinCEN, this ANPRM also seeks public input on how a no-action letter process should interact with those mechanisms and whether the addition of a no-action letter process is appropriate.

II. Background

A. The Bank Secrecy Act

Enacted in 1970 and amended most recently by the AML Act, the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) aids in the prevention of money laundering, terrorism financing, and other illicit financial activity.⁶ One stated purpose of the BSA is to “require certain reports or records that are highly useful in—(A) criminal, tax, or regulatory investigations, risk assessments, or proceedings; or (B) intelligence or counterintelligence activities, including analysis, to protect against terrorism.” Another purpose of the BSA is to “establish appropriate frameworks for information sharing” among financial institutions and government authorities.⁷

Congress has authorized the Secretary to administer the BSA. The Secretary has delegated to the Director of FinCEN (the “Director”) the authority to implement, administer, and enforce compliance with the BSA and associated regulations.⁸ FinCEN is authorized to require financial institutions or nonfinancial trades or businesses to maintain procedures to ensure compliance with the BSA and ⁶ Section 6003(1) of the AML Act defines the Bank Secrecy Act as comprising Section 21 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1829b), Chapter 2 of Title I of Public Law 91–508 (12 U.S.C. 1951 et seq.), and Subchapter II of Chapter 53 of Title 31 of the United States Code.
